| Senator Gravitt asked why respondents are asked to complete questions related | ed to gender or college if there is |
|---|-------------------------------------|
|   |                                     |
|   |                                     |
|   |                                     |
|   |                                     |
|   |                                     |
|   |                                     |
|   |                                     |
|   |                                     |
|   |                                     |
|   |                                     |
|   |                                     |
|   |                                     |
|   |                                     |
|   |                                     |
|   |                                     |
|   |                                     |
|   |                                     |
|   |                                     |

| 22 percent participation rate from the faculty in 2020, which Senator Gravitt noted is not a statistically value of the senator Hamner | id |
|--|----|
|  |    |
|  |    |
|  |    |
|  |    |
|  |    |
|  |    |
|  |    |
|  |    |
|  |    |
|  |    |
|  |    |
|  |    |
|  |    |
|  |    |
|  |    |
|  |    |
|  |    |